Index

Kappa Delta Pi Record, Volume 39

Authors and Articles

Anderson, R. Achieving Consistency in Writing across the Curriculum, 187–88.

Araujo, L., and J. Strasser. Confronting Prejudice in the Early Childhood Classroom, 178–82.

Barkley, S. G. Motivating Students with Live-Event Learning, 130–33.

Beckett, A. M. Removing Cultural Barriers to Motivation, 126–29.

Bowden, S. H. Transforming the Spirit of Learning: From Kindergarten to College, 183–85.

Brandt, S. What Parents Really Want out of Parent-Teacher Conferences, 160–63.

Burdine, L. What I Learned from Charlie, 144.

Campbell, B. K. See McLoughlin.

Choi, W. C. KIPP: Reaching Underserved Middle Schoolers, 66–69.

Clark, R. E. Performance Assessment in the Arts, 29–32.

Corcoran, C. A. See Parsley.

Davis, B. H. See Potter.

Dickenson, T. S. See McEwin.

Diket, R. M. The Arts Contribution to Adolescent Learning, 173–77.

Eagle, J. F. See McLoughlin.

Evans, J. F. September 11: Students Became Teachers, 36–39.

Fisher, H. L. Motivational Strategies in the Elementary School Setting, 118–21.

Forman, M. See Knutson.

Gilbert, S. L, and L. C. Smith. A Bumpy Road to Action Research, 80–83.

Hannah, T. See Tichenor.

Heck, S. T. Changes and Challenges for Middle and High Schools, 54–55.

Henry, C. Standards: Encouraging the Arts in Schools, 33–35.

Hoffman, D. H., and R. C. Spencer. Teaching Community: Lessons Learned in Wartime, 156–59.

Howard, C. J. See McLoughlin.

Johnson, K. G. See Porcaro.

Johnson, S. E. See McLoughlin.

Kienholz, K., N. Segall, and D. Yellin. The Block: Implications for Secondary Teachers, 62–65.

Knutson, J. Reflections on a Magical Year: An Interview with Michele Forman, National Teacher of the Year, 43–46.

Kohn, A. Professors Who Profess: Making a Difference as Scholar-Activists, 108–13.

Law, A. Every Kid Counts . . . Right? 150–52.

Lee, G.-L. Understanding Immigrated Korean Children's Educational Needs, 168–72.

Macchia, P., Jr. See Simmons.

MacIntosh, C. L. See McLoughlin.

Manner, J. C. Arts throughout the Curriculum, 17–19.

McEwin, C. K., T. S. Dickenson, and T. W. Smith. Why Specialized Preparation Is Critical, 58–61.

McLoughlin, S. W., B. K. Campbell, J. F. Eagle, C. J. Howard, S. E. Johnson, C. L. MacIntosh, C. M. Scrivner, and A. Y. Williams. Student Motivation: A Home Remedy, 122–25.

Monsour, F. Mentoring to Develop and Retain New Teachers, 134–35.

Morris, R. C. A Guide to Curricular Integration, 164–67.

Null, J. W. Who Is Responsible for Student Learning? 101–03.

Olson, L. Inspiration, 104–05.

Parsley, K., and C. A. Corcoran. The Classroom Teacher's Role in Preventing School Failure, 84–87.

Paterniti, N. See Tichenor.

Peterson, D. S. See Taylor.

Porcaro, J. J., and K. G. Johnson. Building a Whole-Language Writing Program, 74–79.

Potter, S., and B. H. Davis. A First-Year Teacher Implements Class Meetings, 88–90.

Richards, J. It's Been a Bad Day! 6–8.

Scrivner, C. M. See McLoughlin.

Segall, N. See Kienholz.

Siegesmund, R. Bringing Accountability to Elementary Art, 24–28.

Sikula, J. A Professional-Development Model That Works, 40–42.

Simmons, M. P., and P. Macchia Jr. Strategies for Modeling Technology Integration, 136–39.

Smith, L. C. See Gilbert.

Smith, T. W. See McEwin.

Soep, E. Arts in the City, 12–16.

Spencer, R. C. See Hoffman.

Stevens, K. School as Studio: Learning through the Arts, 20–23.

Strasser, J. See Araujo.

Taylor, R. T., and D. S. Peterson. RISE: Service and Learning Combine, 70–73.

Tichenor, M. S., J. M. Tichenor, T. Hannah, N. Paterniti, and S. Wilson. Education in Germany, 94–95.

Tumposky, N. Motivation: What Do Teachers Need to Know? 114–17.

Weber, T. The Haves, the Needs, and the Don't Cares, 55.

Williams, A. Y. See McLoughlin.

Wilson, S. See Tichenor.

Yellin, D. See Kienholz.

Zirkle, C. Course Web Site Enhances Classroom, 91–93.

Book Reviews

Classroom Management: A Resource Manual for Frontline Teachers, by R. Petty. Lanham, Md.: Scarecrow Press, Inc. 2001. Reviewed by J. L. Olson, 96.

Getting Started: Reculturing Schools to Become Professional Learning Communities, by R. Eaker, R. DuFour, and R. Burnette.

Index

Kappa Delta Pi Record, Volume 39

Authors and Articles

Anderson, R. Achieving Consistency in Writing across the Curriculum, 187–88.

Araujo, L., and J. Strasser. Confronting Prejudice in the Early Childhood Classroom, 178–82.

Barkley, S. G. Motivating Students with Live-Event Learning, 130–33.

Beckett, A. M. Removing Cultural Barriers to Motivation, 126–29.

Bowden, S. H. Transforming the Spirit of Learning: From Kindergarten to College, 183–85.

Brandt, S. What Parents Really Want out of Parent-Teacher Conferences, 160–63.

Burdine, L. What I Learned from Charlie, 144.

Campbell, B. K. See McLoughlin.

Choi, W. C. KIPP: Reaching Underserved Middle Schoolers, 66–69.

Clark, R. E. Performance Assessment in the Arts, 29–32.

Corcoran, C. A. See Parsley.

Davis, B. H. See Potter.

Dickenson, T. S. See McEwin.

Diket, R. M. The Arts Contribution to Adolescent Learning, 173–77.

Eagle, J. F. See McLoughlin.

Evans, J. F. September 11: Students Became Teachers, 36–39.

Fisher, H. L. Motivational Strategies in the Elementary School Setting, 118–21.

Forman, M. See Knutson.

Gilbert, S. L, and L. C. Smith. A Bumpy Road to Action Research, 80–83.

Hannah, T. See Tichenor.

Heck, S. T. Changes and Challenges for Middle and High Schools, 54–55.

Henry, C. Standards: Encouraging the Arts in Schools, 33–35.

Hoffman, D. H., and R. C. Spencer. Teaching Community: Lessons Learned in Wartime, 156–59.

Howard, C. J. See McLoughlin.

Johnson, K. G. See Porcaro.

Johnson, S. E. See McLoughlin.

Kienholz, K., N. Segall, and D. Yellin. The Block: Implications for Secondary Teachers, 62–65.

Knutson, J. Reflections on a Magical Year: An Interview with Michele Forman, National Teacher of the Year, 43–46.

Kohn, A. Professors Who Profess: Making a Difference as Scholar-Activists, 108–13.

Law, A. Every Kid Counts . . . Right? 150–52.

Lee, G.-L. Understanding Immigrated Korean Children's Educational Needs, 168–72.

Macchia, P., Jr. See Simmons.

MacIntosh, C. L. See McLoughlin.

Manner, J. C. Arts throughout the Curriculum, 17–19.

McEwin, C. K., T. S. Dickenson, and T. W. Smith. Why Specialized Preparation Is Critical, 58–61.

McLoughlin, S. W., B. K. Campbell, J. F. Eagle, C. J. Howard, S. E. Johnson, C. L. MacIntosh, C. M. Scrivner, and A. Y. Williams. Student Motivation: A Home Remedy, 122–25.

Monsour, F. Mentoring to Develop and Retain New Teachers, 134–35.

Morris, R. C. A Guide to Curricular Integration, 164–67.

Null, J. W. Who Is Responsible for Student Learning? 101–03.

Olson, L. Inspiration, 104–05.

Parsley, K., and C. A. Corcoran. The Classroom Teacher's Role in Preventing School Failure, 84–87.

Paterniti, N. See Tichenor.

Peterson, D. S. See Taylor.

Porcaro, J. J., and K. G. Johnson. Building a Whole-Language Writing Program, 74–79.

Potter, S., and B. H. Davis. A First-Year Teacher Implements Class Meetings, 88–90.

Richards, J. It's Been a Bad Day! 6–8.

Scrivner, C. M. See McLoughlin.

Segall, N. See Kienholz.

Siegesmund, R. Bringing Accountability to Elementary Art, 24–28.

Sikula, J. A Professional-Development Model That Works, 40–42.

Simmons, M. P., and P. Macchia Jr. Strategies for Modeling Technology Integration, 136–39.

Smith, L. C. See Gilbert.

Smith, T. W. See McEwin.

Soep, E. Arts in the City, 12–16.

Spencer, R. C. See Hoffman.

Stevens, K. School as Studio: Learning through the Arts, 20–23.

Strasser, J. See Araujo.

Taylor, R. T., and D. S. Peterson. RISE: Service and Learning Combine, 70–73.

Tichenor, M. S., J. M. Tichenor, T. Hannah, N. Paterniti, and S. Wilson. Education in Germany, 94–95.

Tumposky, N. Motivation: What Do Teachers Need to Know? 114–17.

Weber, T. The Haves, the Needs, and the Don't Cares, 55.

Williams, A. Y. See McLoughlin.

Wilson, S. See Tichenor.

Yellin, D. See Kienholz.

Zirkle, C. Course Web Site Enhances Classroom, 91–93.

Book Reviews

Classroom Management: A Resource Manual for Frontline Teachers, by R. Petty. Lanham, Md.: Scarecrow Press, Inc. 2001. Reviewed by J. L. Olson, 96.

Getting Started: Reculturing Schools to Become Professional Learning Communities, by R. Eaker, R. DuFour, and R. Burnette.

Bloomington, Ind.: National Educational Service. 2002. Reviewed by A. M. Eppolito, 143.

How to Create a Professional Electronic Portfolio: A Guide for the Preservice and Beginning Teacher, by M. L. Dice and B. L. Goldenhersh. Dubuque, Iowa: Kendall/Hunt. 2002. Reviewed by D. S. Goldsby, 188.

How to Teach the Novel & Meet the Challenge of High School English, by B. Rendelstein and L. Rendelstein. Matawan, N.J.: Teaching Adventure Publications. 2002. Reviewed by G. E. Mabie, 5.

Subjects

Note: Page numbers in boldface indicate a chart, diagram, or figure.

Academics, motivation for, 121; failure, 84–87; high expectations, 68–69; standards, 18
Accessibility, 151
Accountability, 24–28, 102, 110–111; arts and, 13–14
Action plans, 162–63
Action research, 80–83
Activities, integrated, 18; transitions between, 7
Adolescents, arts contributions to learning, 173–77; stereotypes, 58
Anti-bias environment, 181
Arts, accountability, 13–14, 24–28; community building, 159; contributions to adolescent learning, 173–77; education status, 21–22; encouraging in schools, 33–35; implications for learning, 15–16; integration throughout curriculum, 17–23; non-school settings, 12–16; performance assessment, 29–32
At-risk students, 84–86; parental support, 125; special assistance for, 157–58
Attribution theory, 116–17, 119
Beginning Teacher Assistance Program, 134–135
Belongingness, 157
Behavior, 182; 'after-lunch not interested' syndrome, 140; distracted, 6–8; out-of-control, 189–90; talking, 190
Bilingual demo language lesson, 190
Block scheduling, 62–65
Character building, 158
Class meetings, 88–89
Classrooms, anti-bias environment, 181; art classrooms as refuge, 24; building community within, 104, 157; confronting prejudice in, 178–82; desk formation, 8; management, 5, 96; more time in, 67–68; motivation strategies, 114–17
Collectivism, 128–129
Collectivistic value system, 123–24
Community, as curriculum resource, 16; developing sense of, 157–59; recognition of, 124
Conflict resolution, 158
Connected integration model, 165
Course Web site, 91–93
Culture, collectivism, 128–29; of critique, 16; differences in, 126–27; diversity, 180–182; importance of, 122–24; individualism, 128–29; Korean, 169–70; and literature, 129; removing barriers to motivation, 126–29; transmission in education, 22; understanding, 158; youthful readings of, 175
Curriculum, alignment of, 110; consistency in writing, 186–87; in Germany, 95; integration, 164–67; integration of arts, 17–23
Disabilities, children with, 150–52
Diversity, 104, 180–82
Education, alternative paths to reform, 22–23; arts importance, 174; distrust of, 111; Five Pillars model, 67–69; in Germany, 94–95; inclusion of children with disabilities, 150–52; Korean culture importance, 169–70; schools as factories, 20; schools as studio, 20–23; time of day and, 6–7; transmission of culture, 22; voucher plans, 48; wartime changes to, 157
Educational psychology, 115
Educators, erroneous assumptions, 110–11; motivation and, 122–25; shortage of, 142; teaching future educators, 112–13
Effort, 116–17
Electronic portfolio, 188
Elementary schools, accountability to art, 24–28; high school reading tutors, 70–71; motivation, 118–21; reading, 70–73
Emotional intelligence, 157
Empathy, 158
English, community building, 159; studying novels, 5
Extra-school learning, 176
Extrinsic motivators, 125
Five Pillars model, 68–69
Flexible Modular Scheduling (FMS), 62–64
Fourth-generation evaluation, 160–63
Germany, 94–95
Goal theory, 119
Hierarchy of motivators, 131
High schools, block scheduling, 62–64; challenges, 54–55; number of graduates, 153; students as reading tutors, 70–73; studying novels, 5
High-stakes testing, 111
Immersed integration model, 165
Immigrant students, 126; Korean, 168–72
Incidental learning, 133
Inclusion, 150–52
Indiana, 54
Individualism, 128–129
Influence vs. control, 102–03
Inspiring students, 104–05
Integrated curriculum, 164–67
Intentional learning, 133
Interactions, 15
Interdisciplinary activities, 14–15
International, 4
Interpersonal understanding, 158
KIPP (Knowledge Is Power Program), 66–69
Knowledge, 184–85
Korean children, 168–72
Language arts, 159
Learning, from arts, 12–16; difficult experiences with, 116; disequilibrium, 183; incidental vs. intentional, 133; motivation, 112, 114–16, 131–32; block scheduling, 64; responsibility for students, 101–03; styles of, 105; transforming spirit of, 183–85
Literature, 5, 129
Live-event learning, 130–33
Mastery orientation, 116
Mathematics, community building, 159; improving teaching methods, 87; links with art, 19

Mentoring teachers, 134–35
Middle schools, categorizing students in, 55; challenges for, 54–55; focusing on results, 69; KIPP (Knowledge Is Power Program), 66–69; specialized professional teacher preparation, 58–61; studying novels, 5; underserved students, 66–69
Minority students, accountability of, 102; college enrollment, 153; KIPP, 66–69
Mission statements, 39, 104
Modeling technology integration, 136–39
Models, Five Pillars, 67–69; professional development, 40–42
Motivation, apathetic about science, 140–41; bribery, 116; building academic success, 121; building on mutual trust, 124–25; community recognition, 124; culture and, 117, 122–24, 126–29; effective techniques, 119; effort, 116–17; elementary school, 118–21; hierarchy, 131; live-event learning, 130–33; parents and, 122–25; RISE model, 120–21; strategies, 114–17; student, 101–03; teachers as motivators, 116, 119–20; theories, 114–17, 119; universal needs model, 117
Multicultural education, 181
Multiple intelligences, 104–05
National Visual Arts Standards, 34
Naturalistic students, 105
Nested-integration model, 165
Networked-integration model, 165–66
Nonsymbolic thinking, 28
Oral storytelling, 181–82
Parents, action plans, 162–63; at-risk students, 125; commitment-to-excellence form, 68; importance of culture, 84, 122–24; motivation and, 122–25; parent-teacher conferences, 160–63; RISE, 71–72
Parent-teacher conferences, 160–63
Peer critique and the arts, 14
Peer edits, 77–79
Performance assessment, 30–32
Physical education, 159
Positive interaction skills, 88–90
Prejudice, confronting in classroom, 178–82
Principals, influence vs. control, 102–03; power to lead, 68
Problem solving, 157
Professional development, 44–46
PT³ (Preparing Teachers to Use Tomorrow's Technology), 136–39
Reading, aesthetic, 129; improving, 87; level, 70–73
Research, action, 80–83; curriculum integration, 166; favored concepts, 110; improving teaching practices with, 80; knowledge and skills, 81; effect on public policy, 111; methods of conducting, 111–12; teachers performing, 80–83
RISE (Reading Intervention Sans Expense), 70–73
RISE model, 120–21
Routines, 7
Rubrics, 32
Scholar activists, 108–12
Schools, accountability, 25, 102; aftermath of September 11 and, 36–37; back-to-basics thrust, 22; communities, 125, 143; encouraging arts in, 33–35; environment and at-risk students, 84–85; implications for the arts, 15–16; reform, 22–23, 101; standardized measurement of, 40; as studio, 20–23; violence in, 48; wartime challenges, 157–58
Science, community building, 159; students apathetic about, 140–41
Self-determination theory, 119
Sequenced-integration model, 165
Shared-integration model, 165
Single discipline–based activities, 18
Social sciences, 159
Specialized middle-school teacher preparation, 58–61
Spirit of learning, 183–85
Standards movement, 33–34
Student teachers, 36–39
Students, academic and personal habits, 84; action plans, 162–63; at-risk, 84–87; benefits of technology, 138; breaks during lessons, 6–7; building respect for, 185; commitment-to-excellence form, 68; computers for, 153; course Web site, 91, 93; effects of war on, 156–57; hierarchy of motivators, 131; immigrant, 126; improving behavior of, 88–90; inattention of, 6–8; input for teaching, 184; inspiring, 104–05; lessons, 144; low-performing, 69; motivation, 5; personal space, 6; as reading tutors, 70–73; responsibility for learning, 101–03; routines, 7; self-assessment, 163; task-goal orientation, 119; underserved middle schoolers, 66–69; writing improvements, 187
Studio, 20–23
Talking, 190
Task-goal orientation, 119
Teachers, accountability, 25; benefits of arts for, 25–26; classroom management, 96; commitment-to-excellence form, 68; consistently responding to writing, 186; core beliefs, 183–84; course Web site, 91–93; experience and motivation, 116; influence vs. control, 102–03; of Korean students, 169–72; mentoring, 134–35; methods of teaching teachers, 113; motivation, 119–20; preparation, 8, 58–61; proficiency in technology, 137–38; relationships with students, 85–87; as researchers, 80–83; shortage of, 142; student-teacher transformation into, 36–39; wartime challenges, 158–59
Teaching, abroad, 4; building respect for students, 184–85; future educators, 112–13; in Germany, 95; test scores as measures of, 111–12
Technology, 136–39
Test scores as measures, 111–12
Threaded integration model, 165
Time management, 185
Tolerance, 158, 180
Tougher-standards movement, 110
Universal-needs model, 117
Violence, 48, 158
Visual thinking, 26–28
Wartime teaching, 156–59
Whole-language writing program, 74–79
Withitness, 110
Writing, consistency across curriculum, 186–87; whole-language writing program, 74–75, 76–78, 79